Martindale Hubbell "Preeminent" AV
Rated

Rated as "preeminent" by a leading survey for more than 25 years, Glenn represents defrauded investors and oppressed shareholders in derivative litigation.

Glenn is a seasoned litigator who has recovered tens of millions of dollars on behalf of defrauded investors and oppressed shareholders.

With a track record of success handling complex litigation over 35 years, he is perennially rated as "preeminent" by a leading survey of his peers. Glenn has also been recognized for his acumen in securities law and has been selected to the Pennsylvania Super Lawyers list for nine consecutive years.

His securities litigation experience includes representing customers, brokers and broker-dealers in investment and employment disputes, and regulatory investigations and administrative actions by the SEC, FINRA and state regulators. He also represents clients in hedge fund litigation.

Glenn oversees the firm's litigation practice. He has held key leadership roles with two organizations influential in shaping policy and practice in securities law – the Public Investors Arbitration Bar Association and FINRA's National Arbitration and Mediation Committee. Glenn also currently serves as Chair of FINRA's Discovery Task Force.
