Ben has extensive experience handling securities arbitration cases and various types of commercial litigation matters.

Ben is an accomplished litigator with extensive experience representing investors in securities litigation and arbitration matters, and with a strong track record for handling a wide variety of commercial disputes.

He is known for both his thoughtful counsel to and forceful representation of clients in a broad range of disputes involving securities, contracts, real estate, landlord and tenant, consumer protection, civil rights, class actions, intellectual property, mechanics' liens, and employment law.

Ben has taken numerous cases to arbitration hearings before the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA) and American Arbitration Association (AAA), and to trial in state and federal courts in Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He also has experience handling high-profile cases generating attention from key media outlets.
